Separate registration for the World Parliament (no additional cost)

and send all information to Dr. Glen T. Martin: gmartin@radford.edu
Fax: 001-540-639-4320. 313 Seventh Ave., Radford, VA 24141, USA

Please Note

You may register for the Parliament as either an observer or a delegate.

(You may also attend the World Peace Thinkers and Writers Meet without attending the Parliament section at all.)

Observers are not required to recognize the Constitution for the Federation of Earth as the supreme law for the Earth. They may speak as part of the Parliament according to parliamentary rules but may not vote on legislation or resolutions.

Delegates have pledged allegiance to the Earth Constitution and may therefore vote on proposed legislation or resolutions under the authority of Article 19 of the Constitution. Both delegates and observers are welcome! Delegates sign and return the pledge below.

Provisional World Legislative Acts

The Provisional World Parliament (PWP) considers proposed legislative acts (bills) and parliamentary resolutions. Any person who is signatory to the Earth Constitution may propose bills for consideration by the Parliament.

Delegates at the session of Parliament will also formulate a resolution expressing the views of that session of the PWP, to be used as a press release for that Parliament session.

The Legislative Drafting Committee is headed by Dr. Eugenia Almand: govt\_rules@yahoo.com. All proposals are due by October 1, 2015. See www.worldproblems.net for details.
